Subject: Len Merson Presentation - Outstanding!

Jim,

Thank you for recommending Len Merson to me in July. We had our all member meeting today with Len conducting a presentation of "Changing Chaos into Productivity". All the evaluations had a perfect score of "excellent" for Len as presenter, and very high scores for every dimension measured.

Here are some of the comments:

- "Wonderful, informative and presented well"
- "Excellent- left me hungry for the content there wasn't time to present in one session"
- "I cannot afford to not start this when I return...I will do it"
- "Applicable to myself, which in turn is good for our business"
- "I'm afraid about losing my secret lover (my task list)"
- "Wow been looking to find ways to communicate better-better work flow process for me"
- "Great presentation and content"

Len, thank you for coming to Chicago and doing a terrific job for us! Your passion for giving people back the precious and scarce commodity of free time is truly a powerful driving force in delivering this very worthwhile contribution to all the people you impact!

Sincerely,

Ed Breclaw
