

Renaissance EXECUTIVE FORUMS

Len:

Thank you for your participation in my November 10th ALL Members Forum. Turning Chaos into Productivity is certainly a challenge most of my members face. Your presentation really hit home. Members were able to take home some practical tips for making themselves more productive. I bet every one of them has changed their habits in at least one positive way, I know I have.

Member feedback was very positive, that's an important measure of success in my business. I appreciate you helping make this event successful.
